Auntie Lesley Williams is a respected Murri Elder, best known for instigating the domestic and international Justice for Aboriginal Workers campaign.

In 2002 this campaign resulted in the Queensland State Government delivering a historic reparation package of $55.4 million to all Indigenous workers who had their wages and savings controlled by past governments.

Awarded the Centenary Medal for Distinguished services to the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community in 2003.

Co-produced and consulted on a number of documentary films including The Ration Shed and For Their Own Good, and co-wrote On The Banks of the Barambah: A History of Cherbourg.

She is a proud and devoted 'Nana' to six grandchildren.

Copies of Lesley and Tammy William's Not Just Black and White: A Conversation Between A Mother & Daughter will be available for purchase after the presentation.
