

The RQI Speaker Series

Saturday, 16 NOVEMBER 2019

MITCHELTON LIBRARY

37 Heliopolis Parade, Mitchelton QLD 4053

from 1.00 pm until 4.00 pm

*Join us to meet our very special guest, Jeremy Donovan

Indigenous Storyteller & Inspirational Speaker

JEREMY DONOVAN descends from the Kuku-Yalanji tribe of far Northern Queensland. One of Australia's most celebrated keynote speakers -- an artist, consultant and performer -- his exceptional skill with the didgeridoo and extensive knowledge of his cultural heritage have earned him recognition as a master storyteller and performer.

Jeremy Donovan provides 'Walking with Wisdom' a consultancy engaging with Government, Corporates and the Community. Previously, he was National Development Director for Generation One, and was appointed Chief Executive Officer to lead the campaign to end disparity through employment.

Entry to this Reconciliation Queensland Speaker Series Meeting is FREE -

All are most welcome

Feel free to bring a plate of food or refreshments to share at our Afternoon Tea.

This is informal, no motions are on the agenda for the gathering.

Donations are always gratefully received to help our volunteer-run organisation deliver these events.

We aim to promote reconciliation while giving members an opportunity to engage with important community figures & leading experts.

Join the rest of us at 1.00 PM on SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 2019 at the MITCHELTON LIBRARY to meet and to hear an enlivening talk by Inspiring Indigenous Storyteller & Performer JEREMY DONOVAN

RSVP: please email events@rqi.org.au

Visit us on the web: www.rqi.org.au

<https://www.facebook.com/reconciliationqld/>