Logan Road & Kessels Road, Mt Gravatt

from 1.00 pm until 3.45 pm

Join us for a presentation by our distinguished guest, Waverley Stanley

'The Yalari Story'

“It's not about me; it's about all of us working collaboratively as Indigenous and non-Indigenous people for the same common goal of educating and empowering Indigenous children.”

Waverley Stanley AM

Yalari is a not-for-profit organisation offering secondary education scholarships to leading Australian boarding schools for Indigenous children from regional, rural and remote communities.

Join Us to Meet Yalari Founder Waverley Stanley, AM

WAVERLEY STANLEY AM is Founding Director of 'Yalari' -- educating and empowering Indigenous children. In January 2019 Mr Stanley was appointed a Member of the Order of Australia for his significant service to the indigenous community through support for education.

Now in its 14th year of operation, Yalari has 194 indigenous children on scholarships in 26 partner schools across Australia. Yalari also has an alumni group of 346 who are studying at university, working, undertaking further training or raising families.

Entry to this Reconciliation Queensland 'Speaker Series' General Meeting is free - All are most welcome

Feel free to bring a plate of food or refreshments to our afternoon tea. This is an informal affair, no motions are on the agenda for the gathering.

Donations are always gratefully received to help our volunteer-run organisation deliver these events: we aim to promote reconciliation while giving members an opportunity to engage with RQI management and important community figures & leading experts.

RSVP: please email events@rqi.org.au
